

My favorite actor is ...

by James Sharpe, Happening US correspondent

My favorite actor is one of the most talented men in show business today. Johnny Depp is a superstar. He has made some of the greatest movies of all time.

The first time I saw Johnny Depp act in a movie was in "Edward Scissorhands." At that moment I knew that Johnny Depp was my favorite actor.

In every single movie that Depp is in, he plays his role with so much passion that I truly believe the story he tells. He is different from other actors because he puts his passion in his job. He is not merely "good", he is great.

He stands out as an amazing actor in the trilogy "Pirates of the Carribean". In these movies, he plays Jack Sparrow, a pirate with a lot of tricks up his sleeve. He has no true friends in this movie and always has to use his wits to get himself out of very dangerous situations. He plays this role with such enthusiasm that he creates all of the comedy in the movie.

It became my favorite movie. I love watching actors and actresses who truly love what they do and put a lot of effort into their jobs. This is why Johnny Depp is my favorite actor: he is extremely talented, loves to act, and is very down to earth.
