

The background of the image is the European Union flag, featuring a blue field with twelve five-pointed gold stars arranged in a circle. The text is centered over the flag.

SOME IDEAS FOR A BETTER EUROPE

A photograph of three cyclists riding away on a gravel path through a forest. The cyclist in the foreground is wearing a black shirt and a red helmet. The two cyclists in the background are wearing red shirts. The path is surrounded by tall grass and trees.

EUROPEAN DAY FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

On a selected day of the year, young people from all over Europe should use their bicycles to go to work or to school.

This could prove an advantage for the environment and set a good example for everybody.

WRITE YOUR BEST IDEA FOR EUROPE ON A BLOG

Creating a blog or a web site where all young people can write their ideas and give their advice would provide useful feedback. The best stuff could be sent to the Parliament and be used in Europe.

A set of white porcelain teacups and saucers with gold trim and pink butterfly designs, set against a dark red background. The teacup in the foreground is on a matching saucer. In the background, a teapot and another teacup are visible. The text is overlaid on the image.

On an appointed day of the year people from all over Europe should adopt the customs and traditions of a different European country. This could be a way to promote friendship among member states.

Today, technology is central to our every day life. So, why not have a day devoted to technology with a special expo? Every year in a different European country? This could be a good idea for comparing innovation and creativity and adopting the latest and the most effective solutions.
